VOLUME CVI.--NO 138. ALEXANDRIA, VA., MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 12, 1905. PRICE 2 CENTS.

TIRED OUT.

There's many a wife sits in the growing shadows of an evening, knowing what it is to feel tired out; as if there was not another ounce of effort left in her. But if healthy she knows how sound her slumber will be and how refreshed the morning will find her. But it's another thing for the sick woman to feel tired out. Rest only seems to increase her suffering. She feels acutely the aching back and throbbing nerves.

Sick women, hundreds of thousands of them, have been made well by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"I am pleased to inform you of the benefit I received from using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery,'" writes Mrs. Elizabeth A. Oswold, of 45 Brant Street, Windsor, Essex Co., Ontario, Canada. "Was quite discouraged when I wrote asking your advice, as the physicians here told me I could get no relief except by an operation. Suffered for four years from irregular and profuse menstruation, had sick and nervous headaches most of the time, and at times could hardly walk across the floor from weakness. I thank God there is such a remedy as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for suffering women. Before I had taken the first bottle the headaches had left me and it was not long before regularity was established and still continues so. Have just finished house-cleaning which I never expected to be able to do again, and can truly say I never felt better than at present. I gladly recommend 'Favorite Prescription' to all who suffer from female weakness. It has cured me and made me stronger in every way. Neither my husband nor myself can say enough in its praise."

The selfish seller who urges some substitute is thinking of the larger profit he'll make and not of your best good.

THE POWER OF STEAM.

Many May See But It Takes Genius to Realize.

When James Watt saw the steam causing the kettle lid to jump up and down he said "There must be power in that steam that it can lift such a weight."

There was.

Millions prior to him had seen the same phenomenon and regarded it as an unexplained mystery.

Recent scientific research has put its finger on the "cause" of Dandruff, Falling Hair, and consequent Baldness, and has unearthed a tiny germ which eats the life from the roots of human hair.

Newbro's Herpicide destroys this germ and consequently restores the hair to its natural state.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

STRONG Again

is what Mrs. Lucy Stovall, of Tilton, Ga., said after taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Hundreds of other weak women are being restored to perfect health by this remedy. YOU may be well if you will take it.

Indigestion causes nearly all the sickness that women have. It deprives the system of nourishment and the delicate organs peculiar to women suffer—weaken, and become diseased.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that may be eaten. It nourishes the body, and rebuilds the weak organs, restoring health and strength. Kodol cures indigestion, constipation, dyspepsia, sour risings, belching, heartburn and all stomach disorders.

Digests What You Eat

Dollar bottle holds 2½ times as much as the trial, or 50 cent size.

Charge Against a Priest.

Although he proclaims his innocence most vigorously and is not abashed by the contempt expressed by his brother clerics, Father Offer, former pastor of the Barre Mills Roman Catholic Church at Lacrosse, Wis., will have to stand trial at the October term of court and defend himself against a grave charge preferred by the father and affianced husband of Bertha Taylor, 18 years old, who is one of the most beautiful girls in Wisconsin.

Father Offer was arrested Saturday in the Trappist Monastery, New Mellary, just outside Dubuque, to the great surprise of the abbot, and was held in $500 bail. The girl's story is a sad one and the feeling against the priest is intense. His defense is the plea of attempted blackmail.

Miss Taylor is a protestant, and was engaged to be married to one of Father Offer's parishioners. Each evening, it is said, she visited the priest's house for religious instruction. It is alleged that one evening he administered drugs and caused the young woman's downfall.

The girl continued to visit the priest's house until the news of their relations was communicated to the bishop. He removed Father Offer, and the priest hurriedly left Lacrosse. His whereabouts was unknown until a few days ago.

Since he entered the monastery Father Offer had been reticent about his affairs and as he went there voluntarily, unlike most deposed priests, the abbot believed that he was desirous to do pennance for minor sins. He is more than 50 years old.

When the news of Father Offer's alleged crime became known the girl's sweetheart and other friends were prepared to do him violence, and the priest left town on the first train.

American Wives Have Few Sons.

A writer in the London Contemporary Review has made an interesting discovery. He finds that the failure of motherhood among American heiresses who have married titled Englishmen is most marked, while the influence of colonial women on English society is not only more wholesome, but likely to be more permanent. In his opinion, colonial influence in England is masculine, vigorous and wholesome. American influence is feminine, frivolous and fleeting. He offers some striking remarks concerning the invasion of England by American heiresses:

"Since 1840 30 British peers or eldest sons of peers have married in the United States. Of these 13 have no children at all, 5 have no sons and 5 have only one son. The total number of peers' children with American mothers is 39, of whom 18 are sons. During the same period 23 peers or eldest sons of peers have married in the colonies. Four have no children, seven have one son, eight have two sons and two have three sons. That is to say, though the number of colonial peeresses is seven less than the number of American peeresses, they have nearly twice as many children, and while six of them have neglected to present their husbands with heirs, 19 Americans are guilty of the same neglect.

Cincinnati's Jack the Ripper.

Another woman has been added to the list of victims in Cincinnati by the mysterious murderer whose thirst for human blood and his horrible custom of mutilation have caused him to be named after his London prototype—Jack the Ripper. The fifth woman slain within a year fell Saturday, and within a stone's throw of the Spring Grove Cemetery, where he killed four girls—for all the circumstances indicate that the murders were the work of one murderous hand.

Mrs. Mary Reichert, 87 years old, infirm and helpless, was found dead Saturday in the doorway of her cottage. She had been felled with a terrific blow made by a blunt instrument, which crushed her temple. The police have concealed the full particulars, but the murder evidently was of the same character as those which have repeatedly horrified the neighborhood in which the old woman lived, and Saturday night all that part of Cincinnati near the scene of the latest tragedy was in a state of terror and excitement. What perplexes the authorities is that the murderer should have selected such an aged woman to satisfy his unnatural glut for human blood. All the others who met a mysterious fate were girls under 20 years.

Accused of Stealing Jewelry.

A handsomely dressed woman who said she was the niece of a prominent official has been arrested in New York, charged with grand larceny, it being claimed that she had stolen jewelry valued at $4,000. The woman gave her name to the police as Miss Antoinette Cortelyou. At the same time she was arrested the detectives also placed under arrest her colored maid, Ruth Bundy.

The complainant against the two women is Mrs. Dorothy Auerbach who told the police that she called on Miss Cortelyou, whom she had known for years, and that on returning home she found that jewelry valued at $4,000 had been abstracted from her chatelaine bag which she left in Miss Cortelyou's room while she went to a telephone.

Furious Fighting.

"For seven years," writes Geo. W. Hoffman, of Harper, Wash., "I had a bitter battle, with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won and by the use of Electric Bitters. In unmeasured terms recommend them to all and don't intend in the future to be without them in the house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine, to have cured such a bad case as mine." Sold, under guarantee to do the same for you, by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggist, at 50c. a bottle. Try them today.

Found a Cure for Dyspepsia.

Mrs. S. Lindsay, of Fort William, Ontario, Canada, who was suffering quite a number of years from dyspepsia and great pains in the stomach, was advised by her druggist to take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. She did so and says, "I find that they have done me a great deal of good. I have never had any suffering since I began using them." If troubled with dyspepsia or indigestion why not take these Tablets, get well and stay well? For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

TO THE OWNERS OF DOGS.

Mayor's Office,
Alexandria, Va., June 1, 1905.

All persons owning or intending to keep any animal of the dog or canine species must come forward on or before and take out a license for the same from the Auditor. After the NINETEENTH OF JUNE all persons owning or harboring dogs without the required license can be fined (as the laws on the subject require) $5 for every dog so owned or harbored.

Complaint has been frequently made that many persons fail to take out their license, and that others pay on one or two dogs when owning and harboring more, or who send such dogs away during the summer months and bring them back in the fall.

Attention has been called to this evasion of the law, and the policemen will report all such cases, and fines can be imposed upon those who fail to take out licenses after trial in the Police Court.

The police officers will be required to report all violations of this law.

☞ In order to avoid any mistakes persons who make application for licenses would do well to write their names and number of residence, street, &c., on a card or paper when making application for their licenses to the Auditor. FRED. J. PAFF, Mayor.

License and Tag, $1.50.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 12, 1905.

THE BLESSING of prosperity which has pervaded nearly every section of the United States during recent years has not been received generally with a thankful spirit, not even by many whose previous experience, by reason of the dearth of employment, will long be remembered. As soon as the wheels in the factories began to revolve and a demand for workmen set in an era of strikes followed, which is still in evidence. The present high tide will not always prevail. Sooner or later a recession, as inevitable as the coming and going of the seasons, will set in, when eaten bread will soon be forgotten. In the midst of the full and plenty in the United States, it may be proper to contrast our conditions to those at present prevailing in the south of Spain, where a terrible famine is raging. Nearly 4,000 ragged and starving laborers recently marched from the villages of Colmenar, Casabermaje, Alfarnate, Catur and Borge. Starvation had driven them to Malaga to ask for bread and work. They were led by land-owners, who not long ago were in affluent circumstances, but are now in as sad a plight as their own tenants and laborers. At Montalban, in the province of Toledo, rioting has taken place among the starving population. Landowners' lodges have been burned down, the payment of taxes has been refused and taxgatherers' lives threatened.

THE statement has been made in what is regarded as a responsible quarter that out of the charges made by Richard Cheatham, secretary of the Southern Cotton Association, and now being investigated by Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, may grow one of the most serious scandals in the history of the government. What is said to be positive proof has been submitted to Secretary Wilson by Mr. Cheatham that information obtained from the department, furnished by some officials or officials within it, was used to influence the cotton market. The intimation is given that a conspiracy may be unearthed, involving persons in Washington and New York, which, it is alleged, was formed for the purpose not only of manipulating things so as to influence the cotton market, but to affect the corn, wheat, barley and other cereal markets as well. When Mr. Cheatham first made his charges they were scouted and ridiculed by the Agriculture Department, even Secretary Wilson denying them flatly, but such proofs of corruption have been produced as to make an investigation imperative, and a big sensation is promised.

PEACE PROSPECTS, which yesterday seemed to be assuming a more tangible shape are not so bright today. The Japanese are suspicious, and naturally so, as the Mikado was taught but a few years ago a costly lesson by foreign interference after China had been conquered. Japan then, by the concerted action of certain powers, was compelled to relinquish all the territory she had acquired by conquest. Russia, the principal actor in that drama, later took possession of Manchuria and brought on the present war. Tokio has calmly received the news of American intervention and prospective peace. The absence of assurance that Russia will accept President Roosevelt's proposal, and the knowlegde that the final consummation of peace involves the adjustment of a series of questions of paramount importance, requiring the most careful diplomacy extending over weeks of negotiation coupled, perhaps, with the recollection of a previous experience in the thorny path of the world's politics, seem to create a disposition to await final results.

THOSE republican leaders who, a year or more ago, figured that Charles W. Fairbanks would keep his hands out of Indiana politics if he was elected Vice-President are finding unexpected conditions to meet in the recent interest he has shown in the plans to reorganize the Indiana republican State central committee. Since the Vice-President's return from Washington, about a month ago, it has become evident that he will have some influence in selecting a committee, the members of which will be not only friendly, but enthusiastic, for his presidential boom in 1908.

THE CHARTER company in Richmond, chartered by the State Corporation Commission, has been so successful (though it has brought scandal upon the commission and the State) that another company has been chartered, this time in Norfolk. It is to be hoped that none of the stockholders of this new company is in the remotest degree connected with the State Commission.

A FIEND is playing the role of Jack the Ripper in Cincinnati. So far four females have met death at the hands of the mysterious assassin. The individual may not elude the authorities as did his Whitechapel prototype, and the sooner he is caught and made to expiate his crimes the better.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]
Washington, D. C., June 12.

Notwithstanding the rumors from St. Petersburg that Russia will not clothe her commissioners with full powers to negotiate terms of peace, the feeling here that the end of the war is in sight still continues. The President is gratified over the favorable reception accorded his note, not only by the belligerents but also by the world at large. He was in a particularly jovial mood on his return last night from his visit in Virginia. His first words to Secretary Taft, who greeted him at the White House, were, "Are you still sitting on the lid?" The secretary assured him that the lid was still down. Then followed an hour's talk between the President and his principal adviser. It was intimated at the White House this morning that no further official statements would be issued regarding the peace negotiations until the Japanese reply to the President's note should be received in St. Petersburg, and the Russian reply in Tokio. It is expected that notice of the receipt of these answers by the two governments will be sent by Ambassador Meyer and Minister Griscom today.

Russian Ambassador Cassini, German Ambassador von Sternburg and Japanese Minister Takahira each have appointments with the President for today.

Count Cassini, the Russian Ambassador, today laid before the President Russia's formal answer to the President's identical note of June 8th. It is to the effect that Russia assents to the President's proposition and will appoint plenipotentiaries to discuss with plenipotentiaries appointed by Japan terms for peace. The formal answer of Japan, of like character, already having been communicated to the President, negotiations are assured. The place of meeting of the peace envoys is now under consideration by the two governments. The above information is official.

Russia's reply as presented by Count Cassini was not in written form. He was instructed to make known orally to the President Russia's assent and her purpose to appoint plenipotentiaries. Under the circumstances, the President will delay the publication of Japan's note until consent to its publication shall have been given by the Japanese government.

European diplomats here believe that some point in Manchuria, rather than Washington or any European capital, will be chosen by Japan as the place at which the peace negotiations with Russia shall be conducted. They point out that here as well as in Europe the negotiators would be constantly under pressure to disclose the details of the negotiations and they think that Japan would greatly prefer some point that would be removed from such influences. This is known to be the view entertained at the British Embassy here.

Before leaving Washington this morning for West Point, where he is to address the graduating class of the Military Academy, Secretary Taft examined Ira Atkinson, secretary of the Barber Asphalt Company, of Philadelphia, in the Bowen-Loomis inquiry. Yesterday the Secretary examined at the War Department Clyde Brown, treasurer of the New York and Bermudez Asphalt Company, of New York and Caracas. It is understood that his testimony bore upon the matter of the $10,000 check that Bowen charged Mr. Loomis with receiving from the company. The secretary was at his office at eight o'clock, and after taking Mr. Atkinson's testimony proceeded to the station where he boarded the ten o'clock train. Mr. Taft will speak at the Union League Club in New York, tomorrow night, at a banquet in honor of Ambassador Choate, and on Wednesday he will go to Oxford, Ohio, where he will address the graduating class of Miami University. Mr. Clyde Brown brought with him the books of the New York and Bermudez Asphalt Company, as well as the check for $5,000 which Mr. Bean, the company's agent in Caracas, had paid to Mr. Loomis. The books showed that this check was paid as a matter of exchange, Mr. Bean having given it in exchange for 6,500 pesos which were current in Venezuela at that time and which Mr. Loomis desired to have turned into American money. Mr. Brown's testimony and that of the books entirely corroborate Mr. Loomis's explanation of this transaction. Mr. Atkinson was named on Saturday by Mr. Unwin as one of those who, he thought, had "whispered" to him that a certain check made out in the name of Mr. Bean for $10,000 was really intended for Mr. Loomis. Mr. Atkinson positively denied that he was one of the "whisperers" and also denied any knowledge of the check in question or of any other transaction in which Mr. Loomis was interested with the asphalt company.

The Secretary of the Treasury announces that payment of the second installment of public deposits, $12,000,000, called from depository banks will not be required on July 1, the date named in the call, but may be made at any time on or before July 15. The secretary's purpose in postponing the date is to separate the payment from the payment of interest falling due on July 1.

Sir Mortiner Durand, the British Ambassador, today exchanged with acting Secretary of State Loomis at the State Department ratifications of the treaty recently entered into whereby the United States, in common with all other powers, waves its extra-territorial rights in Zanzibar and agrees to the trial of its citizens there in the British courts.

Owing to the pressure of business, the President has altered his plans for his trip to Oyster Bay. Instead of proceeding there directly from his trip to Boston and Worcester, Mass., he will return to Washington and not start for his summer home until after his visit to Cambridge, Mass., for Harvard commencement, on June 27.

Austrian Consul Murdered.

A dispatch from Tangier says that Moorish robbers entered the Austrian vice consulate at Mazagan on June 6 and murdered Vice Consul Madden, a British subject, who also represented Denmark, and who had been established there for many years. They also fired at and wounded his wife. The assassins escaped. The Austrian and British authorities have sent energetic protests to the Sultan's foreign minister.

The Tangier correspondent of the London Standard says that Vice Consul Madden was murdered by a man named Bennamy, son of a wealthy Moor, in revenge for a supposed personal wrong. Bennamy and his slave, who assisted in the murder, have been arrested.

News of the Day.

Norton D. Tillotson, son of a New York millionaire, had a summons in a divorce suit served on his wife while she was lying in a sickroom.

Sidney Paget's Cairngorm, the 1-to-2 favorite, won the Brooklyn Derby, one and one-half miles, at Gravesend Saturday. Migraine was second and Merry Lake third.

The Milwaukee Journal prints a story on the authority of John Keating, that Peter H. Deacon, who died recently in Chicago, had lived a double life for twenty years, having at the same time families in Somerville, Mass., a suburb of Boston, and in Milwaukee.

Harry Moore, a chauffeur, and Mr. and Mrs. Jerome G. Kurtzman, of an automobile party of five were drowned, when the machine, driven recklessly, plunged into the river through the open draw at Rush street, Chicago, at 8:15 Saturday night. The two others narrowly escaped a like fate.

Mad with the delusion that he had been jilted by a girl to whom he had never even told his love, Arthur Freudenfels, a wealthy young tea merchant, committed suicide Friday by shooting himself while sitting on a bench at One Hundred and Nineteenth street and the Speedway, New York.

More than a score of people were injured, several fatally, in a head-on collision Saturday night about 7 o'clock, when two big truck cars on the Johnson trolley line, each carrying more that 100 passengers and traveling at the rate of twenty-five miles an hour, crashed into each other on the track a mile east of Lawrenceville, N. J.

William H. Wattley, chief engineer of the English steamer Ackworth, lying off Tompkinsville, Staten Island, was held a prisoner between two spiles Saturday while the rising tide slowly crept over him, drowning him by inches. He was caught in such a position that he was unable to help himself and too far away for any one to hear his cries.

The mimic war between the army and navy was declared at 12 o'clock last night. The "enemy," in the form of the large squadron of Admiral Dickens, will now endeavor to defeat the land forces defending the artillery districts of the Chesapeake, Baltimore and Potomac, and the boom of the guns may be heard at any time at Fortress Monroe or at the Baltimore fortifications.

King Oscar has finally accepted the address of the Storthing announcing the dissolution of the union, which he at first refused. A member of the Norwegian Cabinet says the popular sentiment favors a republic. The Premier of Sweden says his government will refuse to recognize the revolution in Norway, and he believes no foreign power will recognize the new government.

Frank G. Bigelow, confessed defaulter in the sum of $1,500,000 of the funds of the First National Bank of Milwaukee, while president of the bank, Saturday pleaded guilty to an indictment of ten counts, each count a violation of the national banking laws, and was sentenced by U. S. District Judge Joseph V. Quarles, a personal friend, to ten years' imprisonment at hard labor in the federal penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

THE PEACE MOVEMENT.

Russia is waiting for the Japanese government to name the time and place for the peace negotiations. It is reported in St. Petersburg that the Czar is already cognizant of the chief conditions to be imposed by Japan, and does not consider them too onerous.

According, however, to a report in Paris, the conditions of peace to be imposed by Japan include an indemnity of $650,000,000, a Japanese protectorate over Korea and Manchuria, the cession of Port Arthur and part of the trans-Manchurian Railroad to Japan, forfeiture of the interned warships, the withdrawal of Russian warships from the far East for a period of 25 years and the occupation of Vladivostok until all conditions are fulfilled.

It is believed in diplomatic circles in St. Petersburg that Russia is prepared to abandon the whole of her Manchuria venture and give guarantees. She will insist, however, on holding the railroad to Vladivostok through northern Manchuria. The greatest stickler will be the matter of indemnity.

The Japanese people seem skeptical of Russia's earnestness in the acceptance of the President's suggestion and fear that Japan will sacrifice the advantage of Admiral Togo's victory as well as Field Marshal Oyama's opportunity by consenting to an armistice. The Japanese officials, however, have received assurance of Russia's good faith in the proposed negotiation.

The Teamsters' Strike.

The Chicago Teamowners' Association, an organization employing 8,000 union teamsters, has decided to remain neutral in the present labor struggle now in progress in Chicago. Ever since the commencement of the teamsters' strike the Teamowners's Association has been anxious to have the question of making deliveries to strike-bound houses submitted to arbitration. The teamsters by a unanimous vote refused to agree to the proposition, and for a time it was believed that the teamowners would force a strike of these 8,000 drivers by ordering them to make deliveries to firms involved in the strike.

In an effort to learn the sentiment of the members of the association regarding the matter it was decided to take a referendum on the question. This vote was completed and resulted in 155 of the members voting to remain neutral during the trouble and in three members voting to compel the teamsters to obey orders. The decision reached by the owners means that there will probably be no strike of these men.

Negotiations for peace, which promised for a time last week to be successful, have apparently been abandoned, for the present at least, as both sides are so far apart on any plans of settlement by mediation that further efforts in this direction are believed by all concerned to be futile.

Ten Times Easier.

It is ten times easier to cure coughs, croup whooping-cough and all lung and bronchial affections when the bowels are open. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar is the original Laxative Cough Syrup. Virginia News.

President Roosevelt and party returned to Washington last night from a trip to Albemarle county, Va.

Mrs. B. S. Irons, formerly of Culpeper county, died at the home of her parents in Fredericksburg Saturday, of complications, aged 20 years.

Mrs. Lou Powell, of Dinwiddie county, wife of A. T. Powell, was fatally burned at her home Friday night by the explosion of a kerosene lamp.

After several weeks consideration Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving, rector of Christ Church, Brooklyn, has declined a call to St. Paul's Church, Richmond.

The commencement exercises of the eighty-first session of the University of Virginia began yesterday with the baccalaureate sermon by Bishop Sessums, of Louisiana.

Capt. George Schermerhorn, for many years captain and agent for the Old Dominion Steamship Company, died at his home in Hampton Saturday, aged sixty-nine years.

An incendiary fire destroyed the new residence of J. M. Clark at Siler, Frederick county, at an early hour Saturday morning, together with all the contents. The loss will reach several thousand dollars.

R. M. Bowman, of New York, formerly a resident of Fredericksburg, died at the Mary Washington Hospital there yesterday of heart disease. He served in the Thirtieth Virginia Regiment during the civil war.

Dr. John W. Williams, aged 64 years, a prominent Albemarle physician and a candidate for the Legislature, died yesterday at the University of Virginia Hospital from the effects of an operation, on Friday last, for appendicitis.

Jos. R. Coombes, aged 69 years, died Friday night at his home in Norfolk. Mr. Coombes claimed to have been one of the original seven men who at Rock Island prison in 1863 conceived the idea of organizing the famous Ku Klux Klan. The men were prisoners at that time.

One of the two furnaces operated by the Bertha Mineral Company, at Austinville, Wythe county, was destroyed by fire last night. The furnace was new and was only recently completed for the manufacture of zinc oxide. The loss is $20,000, partially insured. The furnace will be rebuilt at once.

A. Blair Antrim, president of the Roanoke boad of aldermen and one of the most prominent lawyers of the city, died Saturday from diabetes, aged thirty-seven years. He had been in ill health for a year, and had just returned from Europe, where he went for the benefit of his health. He was a native of Charlottesville.

Interest is being taken all over Virginia in the selection of a bishop coadjutor for the diocese of Southern Virginia. A meeting of the council has been called for October, when an assistant bishop will be chosen. This meeting is to be held in Lynchburg. Among the clergymen mentioned for the bishopric are: Rev. A. Braxton Bryan, of Petersburg; Rev. Dr. A. S. Lloyd, now of New York; Rev. Dr. Berryman Green, of the Episcopal Seminary, and Rev. J. J. Lloyd, of Lynchburg

The forty-fourth anniversary of the battle of Big Bethel, the first land battle of the civil war, fought between the forces of Gen. B. F. Butler and Confederates, under Gen. Magruder, was celebrated Saturday with the unveiling of a granite monument at the Bethel Church. Miss Maggie Tabb, of York county, Va., and Miss Fannie Kyle, of Fayetteville, N. C., unveiled the monument in the presence of about 5,000 people from North Carolina and Virginia. Addresses were made by Rev. E. P. Jones, Gov. Montague, Col. J. B. Grimes, of North Carolina, and others.

EQUITABLE CHANGES.

At the sensational meeting of the directors of the Equitable Assurance Society in New York on Friday the following results were accomplished:

James H. Hyde sold to a syndicate, headed by Thomas F. Ryan, his majority of the stock, thus yielding the "one-man control."

Paul Morton was elected chairman of the Board of Directors, with absolute powers.

The majority stock bought from Hyde will be placed in control of Grover Cleveland, George Westinghouse and Morgan J. O'Brien, as trustees for the policy holders. They will have power to elect twenty-eight of the fifty-two directors. This is a step toward mutualization.

James W. Alexander, president; James H. Hyde, first vice president; Gage E. Tarbell, George T. Wilson and W. H. McIntyre, vice presidents, and Henry Rogers Winthorp, financial manager, tendered their resignations, to be accepted if Chairman Morton so decides.

Mr. Thomas F. Ryan is a native of Nelson county, Va. He is vice-president of the Morton Trust Company, and assumed direction because of the infirmity of Levi P. Morton. The acquirement of the stock control of the Equitable placed a control of $1,000,000,000 in hands of Mr. Ryan and his friends which gives them complete independence of three large banking interests, J. P. Morgan, Kuhn Loeb and Company and the National City Bank.

With the payment of a check by Thomas F. Ryan to James Hazen Hyde Saturday afternoon, the control of the stock of the Equitable Life Assurance Society passed out of the family of Henry B. Hyde, its founder.

Charged With Murdering His Wife.

Jacob Provo, a Hollander, fifty-two years of age, employed on the construction gang of the Rochester, Syracuse and Eastern electric road, at Lyons, N. Y., is charged with murdering his wife in their home early yesterday morning by knocking her unconscious and then cutting her throat from ear to ear. He afterward, it is alleged, attempted to commit suicide by cutting his own throat, but only inflicted a slight wound. Provo's seventeen-year-old son notified the neighbors, who summoned the police. Provo was arrested. He denied the charge against him, and asserted that two strange men entered his bedroom and attacked himself and wife in bed. He declared that one of the men rendered him unconscious by a blow, and that when he regained his senses he found his throat was slightly cut and his wife with her throat cut. Provo was lodged in the Wayne county jail. He and his wife lived unhappily.

Today's Telegraphic News

Peace Prospects not Bright.

St Petersburg, June 12.—There are many rumors in regard to peace today in government circles, but it is notable that hardly two officials have the same view. The correspondent of the Publishers' Press on making the round of the offices today heard at least seven different versions of what Russia is prepared to accept in the way of peace demands and what officials believe Japan is willing to agree to. The fact is that the Russian government does not know how the negotiations, which are soon to be opened, will end. One thing is certain and that is that the bureaucracy is not agreed to the peace at any price idea. If Japan simply announces her terms with the ultimatum that they must either be accepted or rejected the negotiations are to come to an abrupt end. Russia is prepared to bargain for terms and that is all. If she sees that the results of the bargaining will be comparativey advantageous Russia will accept. If not, the war will go on. Russia does not consider that she has been beaten down on her knees. She believes that the position of Linevitch's army entitles her to assume a strong attitude in discussing peace terms. Your correspondent is informed that while the question of indemity will be one that will require the most subtle handling on the part of the peace commissioners, there is an equal chance that the negotiations will be wrecked over the future of Vladivostok. Russia will not agree to the abandoning of Vladivostok as a naval base and will take the stand that Vladivostok is now in an ideal condition to resist a Japanese attack, and that the Mikado's army cannot capture it without sacrificing half a million men. It is believed here that if Japan forces the issue that Vladivostok must be given up as a naval base the war must continue.

London, June 12.—The optimistic opinion which prevails in America, as shown by advices received here, that the war is practically over and peace assured finds no echo in Europe.

The attitude assumed today by the reactionary press shows that there is a strong party in St. Petersburg working against peace. The newspapers which reflect the sentiment of this anti-peace party, today published articles attacking President Roosevelt. The declaration is made that the President is openly hostile to Russia.

London, June 12.—The correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company at St. Petersburg wires that the outlook for peace is not as bright as it was yesterday, owing to the reports that the Japanese have begun an offensive movement in Manchuria.

St. Petersburg, June 12.—Russia's formal answer to President Roosevelt's note in which he suggested the appointing of peace commissioners to meet Japanese representatives to discuss peace, was handed to Ambassador Meyer today. In this reply the Czar announces his acceptance of the President's proposal.

The Flood in the Subway.

New York, June 12.—Through traffic in the subway is still completely suspended today as the result of a break in a 48-inch water main yesterday afternoon, on Park avenue north of Fortieth street, which completely flooded the tunnel for/ blocks. Trains are only running this morning above Times Square, and below Fourteenth street on the local tracks. The flooding of the subway was followed by a period of terror to hundreds of passengers when there was a sudden stoppage of trains, immersion into black darkness, and a succession of thunderous reports of exploding fumes in the deep cut below the Fourth avenue trolley tunnel. Scores put their lives in immediate peril by leaping from the trains to the tracks and wading through the water that was rising to the level of the deadly third rail to receive a ground current of electricity. That none was shocked to death in this way is due to the margin of a few minutes they had before the water rose above the rail and the action of the train guards in preventing others from leaving the cars. It was over five hours before the water was turned off, no one knowing where the gate was which cut the flow.

Death and Damage by Flood.

Davenport, Iowa, June 12.—An unknown number of lives are lost and millions of dollars worth of crops are destroyed, miles of railroad tracks have been swept away, many bridges ruined, and residents of the valley have fled as a result of an unexpected and unprecedented rise of the Missouri river. The loss of crops in Clark county alone, is estimated at a million dollars, and the railroads entering Keekuk are said to have lost as much more. Alarming reports come from Major M. E. Miegs, government engineer who made a trip yesterday to the Lima Lake levee on the Illinois side of the river. He says water is already sweeping through the levee. At Quincy the river is five to eight miles wide. Water is sweeping through the Indian Grave levee, just north of the town, and another twenty-foot rise is anticipated. All records for rapid rising of the water in the Mississippi river at Hannibal, Mo., are broken. The river is coming up at the rate of two inches an hour.

Beaten and Assaulted by Italians.

New York, June 12.—Charlotte Lorenson, aged 27, fell in with a gang of Italians shortly before 2 o'clock this morning, and after being brutally beaten was criminally assaulted. The crime was committed in a stable on east 108th street. One of the culprits, who gave his name as Tony Latasso, is under arrest today. Lattasso's four companions escaped. The woman is in the Harlem Hospital. Miss Lorenson told the police that she had been to a picnic and was returning home when she was attacked by the Italians. She said that through a mistake she boaded a Fifth avenue car instead of a Third avenue car, which accounted for her being in the Italian quarter.

Suicide of a Prisoner.

Philadelphia, June 12.—Michael Czarilla, a prisoner in the county prison to be tried today for murder, made a blade from a spoon, disemboweled himself, almost cut off his head and slashed his wrists. He was found dead by the keeper.

In Mad Chase.

Millions rush in mad chase after health, from one extreme of faddism to another, when, if they would only eat good food, and keep their bowels regular with Dr. King's New Safe Pills their troubles would all pass away. Prompt relief and quick cure for liver and stomach trouble, 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons drug store; guaranteed.

From Richmond.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., June 12.—The Henrico jury today found the negro Austin Johnson guilty of assault on Ruth Hinchbrook and fixed punishment at hanging July 20th.

Much interest is felt in the meeting of the State democratic committee Thursday night. The promises date is expected to be about August 15 and 20th.

Naval Attack Repulsed.

Baltimore, June 12.—In the mimic warefare in the upper part of Chesapeake Bay last night the battleship Texas, two cruisers and several torpedo boats were "sunk" with all hands on board by the forts guarding the approach to this city. The boats had attempted to sneak past the forts defending this city, but were detected with the result given above.

Fortress Monroe, June 12.—Notwithstanding the fact that powerful searchlights were playing on the bay all last night, shedding their rays for a distance of seven miles, word was received here this morning that a "hostile fleet" had attacked the defenses of Baltimore. They had, however, been repulsed with great loss to the vessels of the fleet. It was however, incontestably shown that it would have been possible for a fleet to have passed between the Virginia capes in Chesapeake bay, without being discovered, at Fort Monroe. It is twelve miles from the fort to the channel on the Cape Charles side, where the fleet could have proceeded up the bay, to Baltimore or to the Potomac and Washington. Officers declared a fleet could well have come in the bay by hugging the shore close to Cape Charles have passed up the bay without the fact being known at the fort. While nothing is known of Admiral Dickin's future movements, it is reported here that he will next attack the forts of the Potomac, and about Wednesday begin operations here. The principal operations of the exercises will be at Fort Monroe.

Mrs. Rogers to Hang

Rutland, Vt., June 12.—All hope of saving Mrs. Mary Rogers from the hangman's noose has been virtually abandoned and the condemned woman will be hanged at the Windsor prison on June 23, for killing her husband on August 12, 1900. An appeal to Governor Bell for a reprieve until the legislature meets in October is the only proceeding that counsel for the woman can take, and the Governor has indicated that he has given the woman every legal right and the law must take its course.

Gomez Dying.

Havana, June 12.—The condition of General Maximo Gomez is worse today and the end may come at any time. The doctors saying General Gomez's death is only a matter of hours.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES

The little son of Mrs. Eva S. F. Rosseau, a common law wife of Charles Broadway Rouss, of New York, has been awarded $50,000 from the Rouss estate.

The "Pennsylvania Special," the new 18 hour train which left New York, at 3:55 Sunday afternoon, arrived at Chicago at 8:50, this morning, three minutes ahead of the scheduled running time. No accidents marked the trip, but there was a delay of 15 minutes due to a hot box.

Putnam Bradlee Strong, son of the late Mayor Strong, of New York, who gained much norotoriety by his marriage to May Yohe the actress, and who is now appearing with her on the vaudeville stage, today filed a petition in bankruptcy in New York. His liabilities are placed at $1,038.07 with no assests.

Found Guilty of Murder.

A jury in Liberty, Mo., has found Mrs. Agnes Myers, of Kansas City, guilty in the first degree of the murder of her husband, Clarence Myers. Death is the penalty. Frank Hottman, her paramour, and Mrs Myers killed Myers on May 10, 1904, so that he and the murderess might be free to marry each other. Hottman is under sentence of death. Mrs. Myers administered a drug to her husband to compel sleep and Hottman struck Myers with a billard cue. This aroused Myers, and he grappled with Hottman, who was intoxicated. Myers was getting the better of the fight when Mrs. Myers struck her husband with a bed slat and repeatedly cut his throat with a razor. She then stabbed the dying man in the back half a dozen times with a pair of shears. Hottman testified voluntarily against the woman, and he was offered no immunity by the prosecution.

Limiting Educational Facilities.

St. Petersburg, June 12.—The attempt of General Trepoff, the new assistant Minister of the Interior, to limit educational facilities in Russia and bar the poorer classes from the institutions of higher learning, is meeting with success. Following the suggestion made by General Trepoff, the universities have raised their annual tuition fees to 5,000 roubles. This increase in the tuition will shut out hundreds of poor young men, of whom great numbers have matriculated every year. General Trepoff's demand for the increase in the tuition fees was made for the purpose of closing the universities to such students, his argument being that when the poorer classes become educated their eyes are opened to their wrongs and they become advocates of reforms, thus endangering the bureaucracy.

Letter to C. J. Rixey.

Alexandria, Va.

Dear Sir: The late president of the Croton River bank, at Brewsters, N. Y, built the finest house in all that region, in 1884, and painted it with lead-and-oil at a cost of $400—the house cost $31,000.

In 1887—three years—he repainted it with Devoe at a cost of $350. In 1897 this paint was in good condition.

Lead-and-oil, $400, three years. Devoe $350, ten years.

Yours truly,

Have You Seen the MYSTERY

The Mystery is a family picnic boat and is propelled by an electric-gas machine different from all other boats. She is perfectly safe and reliable; has run three years at Chesapeake Beach and carried thousands of people from Washington and Alexandria. You can charter the Mystery for small parties of ten to fifteen people for one dollar an hour, or eight dollars a day, to go anywhere on the river. The Mystery will only stay here two weeks longer, as she is chartered to the Colonial Beach Company for two months—July and August. For further particulars inquire on board of boat at the foot of Duke street, Alexandria.

Subway Flooded.

A break in the forty-eight inch-high-pressure water main in Park avenue, near Forty-second street, New York, yesterday resulted in the flooding of the block just below the Grand Central station, the street car tunnel and the subway, the stoppage of traffic in the subway for many hours, serious damage to the underground road, and great danger to many passengers. Incidentally, it resulted in the caving in of Park avenue over an area 20 feet by 8, from which ran cracks that meant danger to adjacent buildings, if, by the accidental appearance on the scene of a man not connected with the water department, who shut off the terrific Niagara of Croton.

A Lake Shore train from Buffalo at 5:15 a. m., arrived at Toledo, Ohio, at 9:33 making the run of 296 miles in 222 minutes.

Corporation Court.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.]

The June term of the Corporation Court began this morning. In addressing the grand jury Judge Barley said:

Gentlemen of the grand jury: This is a regular grand jury term of this court, and you have been summoned, as required by law, as the grand jury. You constitute the investigating arm of this court, and as such a duty devolves upon you to carefully inquire into all matters presented to you by the court, the Commonwealth's Attorney or which may come to your knowledge. Complaint has been made to me that the laws of this State against gambling, the sale of liquor without a license and on Sunday are being frequently violated in this city. As to the truth or falsity of such complaints I have no personal knowledge. Your very competent Commonwealth's Attorney, I believe, has striven hard to bring the violators of law to justice, but as his duties do not comprehend either those of a police agent or a grand jury, and only begin where yours conclude, it is difficult for him to ferret out and bring to trial such persons, without you, also, do your full duty in this regard. Numerous witnesses have been summoned before you, including the Constable, Commissioner of the Revenue and many of the police force. You may also have summoned before you any other persons whom you may deem necessary for your investigations and require them to testify. It is also your duty to inquire into and true presentment make of any other violations of the revenue laws, including the sale of liquors to minors. If such violations of the law as complained of are being carried on in this city, the perpetrators thereof should be brought to speedy justice. It is a duty which you owe to yourselves and to the community in which you live to give this matter your careful and painstaking investigation, and let not the question of time enter into your inquiries. Knowing that you are business men and will be anxious to get through this work as speedily as possible, I will make the time of the Court suit your convenience and will convene court either earlier in the morning or adjourn it later in the evening, if by so doing it will in any way facilitate your inquiries or better suit the convenience of the members of this jury, and to that end I will adjourn you over from time to time. It is also your duty to inquire into any violation of the revenue law regarding taxation, and to see that all persons have handed to the Commissioner of the Revenue for taxation a list of all properties with which they are justly assessable. I have summoned the Commissioner of the Revenue before you so that you may be enabled to examine his books of assessment, as required by Section 578 of the Code of Virginia, as amended by the extra session acts of 1902-3-4, page 684. The law also requires the Court to bring to your attention the act approved February 27th, 1900, for the purpose of a rigid enforcement of the law prohibiting the sale of adulterated and misbranded foods in this State. It is your duty to inquire into carefully and true presentment make of all felonies, misdemeanors which have not already been tried, and all violations of the penal laws committed within the jurisdiction of this court. At least seven of your body must concur in finding an indictment or presentment. You may, however, make a presentment or find an indictment upon the information of two or more of your own body, and when a presentment or an indictment is so made or found, on the testimony of witnesses called on by the grand jury or sent to it by the court, the names of the grand jurors giving the information, or of the witnesses, must be written at the foot of the indictment or presentment.

The grand jury was fixed at eleven and Worth Hulfish was made foreman. They returned the following true bills:

Commonwealth vs. John Jones, larceny of a watch; vs. Edward Maples, breaking and entering storehouse, vs. Wm McKey, malicious shooting of Robert Harris; vs. Wm. McKey, malicious shooting of George Griffin; vs. Alphonso Antonio, malicious shooting of Jame Winkfield.

The grand jury was then adjourned until 2 o'clock.

At 2 o'clock the grand jury reconvened and the entire police force was summoned as witnesses.

John Jones, colored, indicted for stealing a watch, pleaded guilty and was required to pay a fine of $25.

Wm. McKey, colored, two indictments for malicious shooting, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to serve four years in the penitentiary.

Choir Organized.

In pursuance of the edict of Pope Pius X directing that the Gregorian chants be sung at all religious services in Catholic churches by a choir composed of either boys or adult male singers or both, a meeting of the gentlemen of the congregation of St. Mary's Church was held in the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum yesterday morning after the late mass, which was largely attended. A permanent organization was effected and the name "St. Mary's Choral Union," adopted.

A committee of five—Messrs. Downey, Wenzel, E. A. Gorman, Wheatley and F. A. Hoy—were appointed to go to Washington and secure the services of a competent director and instructor.

A committee of three—Messrs. Wm. L. Hoy, E. A. Gorman and Thomas Feegan were appointed to draw up a constitution and by laws.

Among those present were Messrs. Creegan, Feegan, Greenwell, Lennon, Downey, Monroe, W. L. Hoy, Dwyer, F. A. Hoy, Gorman, G. W. Pettey, Donnelly, J. Pettey, Wheatley, Wenzel, Carne, McDermott, Roche, McFarland and Quinn. Several boys noted for their good voices were present and signified their intention of joining the choir.

The officers elected were Rev. H. J. Cutler, president; Walter Donnelly, secretary; [illegible] Wenzel, treasurer; P. F. [illegible] retary; R. L. [illegible] Downey, assistant director and librarian; Joseph M. Monroe, organist. The office of director will be filled at an early date.

The Union will meet again Thursday night at St. Mary's Church at 8 o'clock.

Personal.

Congressman Claude A. Swanson and Lieut Gov. Joseph E Willard, both candidates for the democratic nomination for governor of Virginia, were passengers on the Weems line steamer Anne Arundel, which stopped at this port yesterday afternoon on her way down the river. The two candidates were bound for Northumberland county, where they are to deliver speeches. Gov. Montague was expected to board the boat in Washington, but he failed to do so, and it is supposed he took some other route for Northumberland.

Mr. Clarence Leadbeater, who has been touring Europe during the past two months, returned home yesterday, having had a most delightful trip. His mother and sister, who accompanied him to Europe, will remain there during the summer.

Miss Mary Bruin, of this city, attended the marriage of Mr. A. L. Byrne and Miss Lena E. Foley, near Berryville, Thursday night, and played the wedding music for the occasion.

Miss Bessie Meyers is visiting her sister, Mrs. William Jensen, in Newport News.

Mrs. Robert Eddington and children, of Alexandria, are the guests of Mrs. A. L. Powell, of west Eighth street—[Richmond Journal.

Miss Eva Lee Curtain, daughter of Mr. Christopher Curtain, and Mr. John W. Riley, a well-known young business man of this city, will be married Wednesday afternoon at the rectory of Christ Church. The wedding will be a quiet one, only the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties being present.

Messrs. P. M. Bradshaw, D. R. Stansbury, Fred Kaus, W. E. Latham and W. W. Sherwood will leave this city this evening for Lynchburg to attend the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, which meets in that city tomorrow.

Mayor Thomas P. Wallace, of Fredericksburg, suffered an attack of apoplexy yesterday at the Exchange Hotel in that city. He was removed to the Mary Washington Hospital. His condition is critical. Maj. Wallace is well-known in Alexandria and his many friends here hope he may soon recover from his illness.

Miss Eva Jones, of King George county, is visiting her cousin, Miss Belle Griffin.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bartels and her child will leave tomorrow for Baltimore and on Wednesday will sail on the steamer Main for Europe to spend the summer.

Mrs. Charles Carter, of Baltimore, is visiting Mrs. L. W. Reid on Duke street.

Miss Addie Strobel and Mr. Harvey Grant were quietly married at St. Mary's Church this morning by Rev. Father Cutler.

Miss Mary Harlow, of this city, was one of the attendants at the wedding of Miss Ella Gleeson and Dr. Daniel D. Mulcahy, which took place at St. Patrick's Church in Washington this morning.

The officers in the internal revenue service in this, the Sixth district, last week presented Mr. Park Agnew, the former collector, a handsome office desk as a mark of the appreciation and esteem in which he was held by them all.

Rev. Arthur Johns, of Washington, last night preached the baccalaureate sermon before the Episcopal High School boys in the chapel of the Theological Seminary.

Police Court.

[Justice W. H. May presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Lucien Williams, arrested by Officers Bell and Patterson, charged with assaulting Amos Robinson, was dismissed.

Wm. Dixon, colored, arrested by Officers Knight and Lyles on supsicion of cutting Virgil Davis, was dismissed.

James Nalls, arrested by Officers Patterson and Bell for being drunk in the street, was fined $5.

Wm. Wilkerson, colored, arrested by the same officers on a similar charge, was fined $5.

Sarah Levi and Punch Kitts, both colored, arrested by Officer Nicholson for fighting, were fined $2 each.

Lewis Baltimore, colored, arrested by Officers Knight and Ferguson charged with assaulting Jos. Pollard with a rock, was fined $5.

A horse which had been taken up on the street by Officers Beach and Allen was turned over to the owner.

Shot One of His Guests.

William Pruitt, who resides in the vicinity of Twining City, on the outskirts of Washington, shot and fatally wounded Edward Steele, of Prince George's county, Maryland, yesterday afternoon. The shooting was the outcome of a quarrel that arose while Pruitt was entertaining a party of friends, including Steele. The party, it is alleged, had been drinking heavily. A quarrel arose, and almost without warning the host, it is declared, seized a revolver and shot Steele twice, wounding him fatally, it is believed. One wound was in the arm and the other in the stomach. The wounded man was taken to the Washington Asylum Hospital, where it was found necessary to amputate his arm. Even with this operation he can hardly survive the effects of the other wound. Pruitt was immediately arrested. William Pruitt formerly lived near the residence of the late John Slater, north of this city.

New Highway Bridge.

The approach to the new highway bridge on the Virginia side of the Potomac is taking shape, though it may be several weeks before the embankment is completed and ready for service. Work was started at the end farthest from the bridge and adjoining the Alexandria and Washington pike. As the earthen embankment goes up, the track will be laid upon a wooden trestle and the big fill made by building under and around the trestle. The approach will be about a half mile long and at its highest part, will be about twenty or twenty-five feet above the level of the river. The stone work of the bridge is completed. The iron work of the bridge is advancing rapidly, and there seems to be no doubt but that the bridge will be completed in September, as was expected.

As has heretofore been announced in the Gazette, services in recognition of Rev. Dr. W. F. Fisher, the new pastor of the Baptist Church, will be held in that church tonight.

The Maccabees give an excursion to River View tomorrow.

Sunday School Celebrations.

The Sunday schools of the Baptist, Methodist Protestant, Trinity Methodist and Methodist Episcopal Church South conducted interesting Children's Day celebrations last night. The churches were crowded and the programmes, which had been prepared with care, were well rendered. The floral displays were beautiful and the exercises consisted of songs, recitations, addresses, &c.

The main auditorium of the Baptist Church was beautifully decorated with flowers and large palms for the occasion. The following programme was rendered: Singing, "O Worship The King;" scripture reading; prayer, Rev. Dr. Fisher; singing, "Onward March." recitation, "Don't," Leslie Henshaw; recitation, "If I were President," by Raymond Wood; singing, "The Children's Happy Day;" exercise (7 children), "The Rainbow of the Year; recitation, "Roger and I," by Ray Davis; recitation, "Children's Day," May Sutton; singing, "When Roses Awake," recitation, "That's Me," by Baldwin Fisher; chorus of children, "Hear Thy Little Ones;" prayer; trio, "June song," by Edith Owens, Mary Chauncey and Josephine Nalls; recitation, "Boy" by Ray Davis; singing, primary department, "Beautiful Beams of Sunshine;" address by Rev. Dr. Fisher; regarding Children's Day and the missionary work; singing, "Scattering Sunbeams;" offering; singing, "Tis Sunshine," and benediction. Miss Jessie Martin presided at the piano, accompanied Mr. G. M. Jameson, violin, and Mr. Harry Hayden, cornet.

The services in Trinity Church were of a very interesting nature. The programme consisted of recitations, readings and the singing of hymns. All the participants acted well their parts. An arch, decorated with vari-colored electric lights and bedecked with flowers, which had been constructed by Messrs. Frank and Robert Lucas, was much admired.

The school of the M. E. Church South had also prepared an interesting order of exercises. It consisted of a number of beautiful features, each of which was admirably carried out. A large congregation witnessed the exercises with interest, and all present expressed themselves as much pleased. The following was the programme: Processional, "Happy Ranks Advancing," the school; invocation, pastor; recitation, "And This is Why," Thomas Jones; song "Wake, Bells of Summer" the school; recitation, "Lovely June," Marian Robey; song, "Away, Away!" the school; recitation, "Little Things for Jesus," Malcolm Harrington, Melisea Harper, Sallie Crump, Loreen Risheill, Ashby Warfield; song, "The Message of the Rose," Nellie Pierpoint, Cleone Riley, Helen Netherland, Nita Burgess, Marguerite Field, Julia Davis; song, "Hear the Little Feet," the primary class; collection; offertory, Julia Davis; song, "The Robin's Song," the school; recitation, "Why Not," Cleone Riley; song, "Lift the Banner," the school; recitation, "Not Self, But Others," Bertram Dienelt; song, "Along the Smiling Pathways," the school; recitation, "They Never Fret," Mesa Burgess; song, "Till We Meet Again," the school; benediction.

The Methodist Protestant Sunday School also held their children's service last night. An interesting programme was carried out. The exercisee were of a missionary character and an offering was made by the school for the cause of missions in Japan.

Yesterday.

The weather yesterday was sultry, rainy and threatening. There were several light showers, followed by more copious downpours during the night. The city was quiet throughout the day, nothing outside of the regular order of things having occurred. Excursion steamers were running from Washington to river resorts at short intervals during the day and until a late hour at night. Another heavy fall of rain set in about 11:30 today which continued for half an hour, during which time many streets were flooded and in some cases the sewers became choked, causing the water to bank up at intersections.

The Makely Case.

As stated on Saturday the case of Mrs. Catherine Makely, of this city, vs. the Southern Railway Company came up on injunction proceedings before Judge Nicol at Manassas on Saturday. Judge Nicol overruled the defendant's demurrer and continued the hearing until August 7. The defendant company is required to file its grounds for demurrer in writing by June 17 and its answer within thirty days. The defendant company is represented by Assistant Division Counsel C. C. Carlin and Mr. Trusdall and the plaintiff by Col. Francis L. Smith and Mr. Edmund Burke.

Accused Dismissed.

William Dixon, colored, who was arrested Thursday night on suspicion of being the man who cut Virgil Davis near the old fair grounds last Thursday night, was brought before Justice May in the Police Court this morning. The suspect was represented by Mr. L. H. Machen. The evidence of young Davis was substantially as published in Saturday's Gazette. The case against Dixon as well as that against the other colored men who had been arrested was dismissed, in consequence of failure to identify them as the assailants.

The Stamp Tax.

To break up the objectionable trading stamp business in Alexandria the City Council last year passed an act imposing a license tax of $500 upon trading stamp companies doing business in this city and $250 upon merchants using such stamps. This act has been decided unconstitutional by Judge Barley, but an appeal will be taken by the city and until the higher court has passed upon the matter the law against trading stamps will be enforced.

Charter.

The Corporation Commission has granted a charter to the American Fraternity (inc.), of Alexandria, with R. H. Freear, of Harrisville, W. Va., as president. The other officers, all residents of Washington, are M. E. Gaegler, vice president, M. F. Partlow, secretary; M. C. Partlow, treasurer. No capital is given. Objects and purposes: A beneficiary association for the protection of its members in case of accident, sickness, old age and death.

St. Mary's Church Sunday school closed yesterday for the summer. Medals were awarded to John T. Creegan, Lee Donnelly and Ellen Patterson for punctual attendance.

Double-tracking Road.

The new double track of the Washington, Alexandria and Mt. Vernon Railway from the south side of Four Mile run to this city will be in use this week. As soon as this work is completed the track building force will start the building of the embankment across Four Mile run, where it will connect with the double track to Arlington Junction. When this work is completed four-fifths of the road between this city and Washington will be double-tracked. The building of the double track from Arlington Junction to the new highway bridge will be started some time in the early fall and it will be ready for service before the new bridge is open for travel

Whitsunday.

Yesterday was Whitsunday, which was appropriately observed in some of the churches, especially at St. Paul's, where a fine musical programme, heretofore published in the Gazette, was well rendered by the choir. The offertory at the morning service was for the Mission of the Good Shepherd, on lower Fairfax street, and the evening service for the music fund. Children's services were held in several of the churches, which was largely attended. The feast of Pentecost was celebrated at St. Mary's Church with imposing services.

Annapolis Cadets.

To fill the vacancy from the Eighth congressional district at the naval academy at Annapolis Congressman Rixey has nominated for the examination, which will be held on June 20, Chancellor Bailey Coleman, of Mineral, Louisa county, son of Dr. W. J. Coleman (as principal), and Joseph Minor Blackwell, son of Prof. E. S. Blackwell, of Bethel Academy, Fauquier county (as alternate).

Fire at Purcellville.

The Bolyn Foundry and the old Smith & Hurst flour mill at Purcellville, on the Washington and Ohio branch of the Southern Railway, were destroyed by fire last night. The depot building had a narrow escape, the structure being scorched, but not materially injured. The origin of the fire is unknown.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The pump at the corner of Franklin and Washington streets is out of order.

A called meeting of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company will be held tonight.

The Emerson Pump Company of this city has received an order from New Orleans for eleven pumps.

Mr. William Zimmerman fell at his home on Prince street, near Pitt, yesterday and sprained one of his ankles.

The Independent Order of Good Samaritans and Daughters of Samaria, colored, will meet in this city tomorrow.

A marriage license was issued in Washington Saturday to Henry J. Kremer, of Alexandria county, and Omah B. Balluff.

Pollard English, a brakeman on the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad, had his chest mashed while coupling freight cars at Quantico yesterday evening. His condition is considered critical.

Mrs. Ollie Moon, who lived at No. 1929 Duke street, but who has been ill at the Hospital for the past month, died at that institution yesterday. Her remains were sent to Columbia, Fluvanna county, today for burial.

The Southern Railway has gotten out a handsome show card giving the dates of the various horse shows to be held in Virginia during the season. We are indebted to Mr. M. L. Dinwiddie, the advertising clerk, for several of the cards.

Another buggy was thrown down the bank in front of Mr. Benj. Baggett's residence, upper King street, yesterday evening. The occupants were thrown out, but fortunately neither was hurt. This is a dangerous place, and the authorities of Alexandria county or the electric railway company should make it safe.

The alarm of fire shortly after 2 o'clock yesterday morning was caused by the discovery of a fire in a small unoccupied frame house near the corner of Cameron and Payne streets. The flames were soon extinguished by a plug stream and the damage was slight. The fire is believed to have been the work of an incendiary.

The new Citizens' National Bank building, at the northeast corner of King and St. Asaph streets, is nearing completion, and it is throught it will be ready for occupancy in about six weeks. The building is now ready for the Spanish tile roofing. The fixtures are ready to be installed as soon as the roof is in place. The contract for the safe deposit boxes has been awarded to the York (Pa.) Safe and Lock Company.

CHINA, GLASS AND HOUSE FURNISHING GOODS.
COLDREN'S GUM Elevates the Standard of the Mason Jar.
Read Carefully
By using Coldren's Extra Heavy Jar Gums you need no wrench to close or open your jars, consequently there will be no broken cap linings or tops of jars.
See that the edge of the cap is smooth and even, then screw it down with your hands (use no wrench,), and when the time comes to open the jar, pull the gum by the lip and it will easily slip from under the cap.

These rings are made double-thick and of an A-1 quality, hence we guarantee they will stay in position under the edge of the cap when placed in use, which is not the case with many of the cheap and thin cut goods. Try them and you will be convinced.

Jeffery Judson, the Dwarf.

One of the most notable of dwarfs was Jeffery Hudson, who was introduced to Henrietta Maria, consort of Charles I., in a noble venison pie. "When the pie was opened," out stepped Jeffery in all the dignity of his eighteen inches and made a courtly obeisance to the astonished and delighted queen, begging to be taken into her service, a favor which was promptly granted.

Jeffery was a man of stout heart and adventurous spirit. He fought two duels, one with a turkeycock and the second with a Mr. Crofts, who faced the little man armed with a squirt and was forthwith shot dead. Twice Jeffery saw the inside of prison walls—once when he was captured by the French on his way across the channel and again when he was captured by Barbary corsairs—and to crown his career of adventure he was accused of being mixed up in the popish plot and ended his rather troublous days in the Gate House in 1682.

Women and Tobacco.

Master Prynne, the weak, well meaning Puritan who in 1633 wrote an attack upon the stage, tells us that in his day tobacco pipes were offered to ladies at the theater in lieu of apples between the acts. A French traveler, M. Torevin de Rochefort, who published his journal in 1677, confirms this by telling us that he found smoking a general custom in England, as well among women as among men. Both sexes, he adds, held that life without tobacco would be intolerable "because, they say, it dissipates the evil humors of the brain."

When ladies stopped smoking they took to snuff. Women of quality about a century ago would not stir without their snuffboxes, beautifully enameled receptacles of perfumed mild rappee. Lord Bolingbroke said of Queen Anne and her grace of Marlborough: "The nation is governed by a pair of snuffers. No wonder the light of its glory is extinguished!"—London Standard.

How the Nutmeg Grows.

"A nutmeg tree," said the gardener, "looks like a laurel. The nutmeg tree begins to bear at the age of ten years. It keeps on bearing until it is ninety. The fruit resembles an apricot, and when ripe it bursts open, showing at its heart the black nutmeg inclosed in a network of scarlet. The nutmeg after plucking must be dried. It is dried over a slow fire, and the process is tedious. It often occupies two months. Before shipping the nutmegs are always steeped in sea water and lime. This is to protect them from insects. They have nothing but insects to fear. In an insect proof condition they keep—well, they keep practically forever."—Minneapolis Journal.

Just Streets.

"The highest street in the world," said a globe trotter, "is Main street in Denver, the richest is Fifth avenue in New York, the widest is Market street in Philadelphia and the shortest is the Rue Ble in Paris. This street is only twenty feet long. The dirtiest street is Tchangtsi in Nankin, the cleanest is the Via Castile in Seville, the most aristocratic is Grosvenor place, London; the most beautiful is the Avenue des Champs Elysees, Paris. The narrowest street is Via Sol, Havana, which has a width of forty-two inches. The ugliest street is considered by many foreign artists and architects to be Broadway, New York, with its skyscrapers."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Warsaw's "Social Glass."

The town of Warsaw, Russia, may be called the milk producers' Eden. There is probably nowhere such a "milk town." Restaurants are but little frequented. On the other hand, the public frequents the various dairies in great numbers in order to chat with friends or read the newspapers to the accompaniment of black or white coffee or a glass of cold or warm milk. To close a bargain or to talk business the milk saloon is resorted to. Chess and billiards are allowed to be played in these recognized places of public resort.—London Times.

When Saddles Were First Used.

It is supposed that the saddle was invented about the middle of the fourth century, but the fact, in the opinion of some, has not been positively proved. Zonaras, the historian, tells us that Constantine the younger was killed in the year 340, when he fell from his saddle. The word translated into saddle also means, however, the back of the horse or the place where the rider sat. It is true, nevertheless, that Sidonius Apollinaris used the word that unmistakably refers to the saddletree.

The Two Evils.

"There's jest two things that break up most happy homes," observed the Pohick philosopher.

"What's them?" inquired the Squedunk ignoramus.

"Woman's love for dry goods an' man's love fer wet goods, b'gosh!"—Washington Post.

A Simple Statement.

It is told of a certain minister that one Sunday morning he preached his sermon with the following notice: "Brethren, I have forgotten my notes and shall have to trust to Providence, but this evening will come better prepared."

An Easy Way.

A sentimental poet writes, "How can I meet my darling?"

After some deliberation over the question we have come to the conclusion that he can meet her by approaching her from an opposite direction.

Ambiguous.

He—Some one has started the story that I have a big head. What do you think of it? She—There's nothing in it.

Torture of a Preacher.

The story of the torture of Rev. O. D. Moore, pastor of the Baptist church, of Harpersville, N. Y., will interest you. He says: "I suffered agonies, because of a persistent cough, resulting from the grip. I had to sleep sitting up in bed. I tried many remedies, without relief, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption Coughs and Colds, which entirely cured my cough, and saved me from consumption." A grand cure for diseased conditions of Throat and Lungs. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists; price 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS
AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

The Children's Favorite.

For Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc., One Minute Cough Cure Cure is the children's favorite. This is because it contains no opiate is perfectly harmless, tastes good and cures. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King street, and corner Queen and Patrick street.

Sprained Ankle, Stiff Neck, Lame Shoulder.

These are three common ailments for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm is especially valuable. If promptly applied it will save you time, money and suffering when troubled with any of these ailments. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Quality vs. Quantity.

Hard muscles and strong body do not depend on the quantity of food you eat, but on its perfect digestion and proper assimilation. When you take Kodol Dyspesia Cure your system gets all the nourishment out of all the food you eat. It digests what you eat regardless of the condition of the stomach and conveys the nutrient properities to the blood and tissues. This builds up and strengthens the entire system. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Belching, Sour Stomach, Weak Heart, etc. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King street, and corner Queen and Patrick.
